

REIGATE EVENING WI

Record of AGM Meeting Wednesday 12th November 2025

Margaret Gordon opened the meeting welcoming everybody.

AGM

The AGM then commenced. Copies of the Financial Statement, Treasurer's and Secretary's annual reports were sent to members in advance and further copies were available in the hall. A copy of the reconciled bank statement was also available to view in the hall.

- Treasurer's report read by Michele Hackman
- Secretary's report read by Viv Winter Stuart
- President's address by Margaret Gordon and Rachel Doherty. Margaret thanked Rachel for her hard work on the committee and presented her with a pot plant.

The signed statement of accounts was proposed for adoption by the Treasurer, Michele Hackman. It was seconded by Viv Winter Stuart. The accounts were accepted by the members by a show of hands. The Treasurer proposed that SFWI appoint an Independent Financial Examiner (IFE) to examine the accounts next year. This was agreed by members by a show of hands.

The secretary's report was adopted by the members

The new committee introduced themselves. Secret ballots were held for the president and two tellers from Woodhatch WI, counted the votes.

This year's committee will be:

- Margaret Gordon, President
- Michele Hackman, Treasurer
- Annie Reeve, Secretary
- Viv Winter Stuart, Committee Member
- Alice Shaw, Committee Member
- Ann Ford, Committee Member
- Satinder Madan, Committee Member from January (Fundraising)

Announcements

Margaret ran through the upcoming events:

- Craft and Chatter on the 14th November at the Posadero Lounge in Redhill
- 2nd Monday Lunch on the 8th December at the New Gurkha Kitchen, Reigate
- Burns Night on the 26th January to be held either at the Woodhatch Community Centre or the Coleman Centre, Reigate

- 3 different sessions of Christmas crafting with Rosemary Creasey
- First aid training - date TBA

She pointed out that Ann Dale was selling her home-made jam in aid of our charity, Renewed Hope.

Margaret also asked members to bring any donations for Renewed Hope of staple food and clothes (especially men's clothing) to the next meeting.

Michelle thanked everyone for bringing all their donations for Renewed Hope to the current meeting

Club News - June Arnold told us about the Travel Together group's visit to Reading.

After the break there was a quiz created by Melanie Ralph.

Raffle

Thanks to:

- Alice Shaw and Laura Jobling for registry
- Liz Sands and Jean Waller for refreshments
- Ann Ford for manning the raffle

Margaret Gordon

President